

Understanding Your PSAT Scores at Lakeside High School

Understanding Your Scores

Tuesday, January 23
6:30pm - 7:30pm
at Lakeside High School

Join Applerouth Tutoring to learn more about PSAT scores:

- Learn how to read your score report and what the scores mean
- Learn more about National Merit Scholarship
- Get next steps for taking the SAT and ACT

Now that your scores are here, you may be wondering where to go next. For sophomores or younger students, you can gauge your current level of performance and begin planning for the all-important junior year. For juniors, your scores will be much more important. You can use the scores to help make decisions about whether to pursue the SAT or ACT for official college admission examinations, or you may be in the top 50,000 test takers who will qualify for some form of National Merit Commendation.
